Lyrics

Prowl

Ariadne didn't need a man when Theseus
Left her on the beach – she was waiting on a God
The lord of wine and vine came down to sweep
Her off her feet – now she weaves her web

If the time is right, and that time is now
Ariadne's fine, with Bacchus on the prowl

Persephone didn't need a mother when Hades Set her on his knee – she knew what she was after The fateful juice of his fruit dripped off the slope
Of her dusky chin – and he belonged to her

If the time is right, and that time is now
Persephone's fine, with Hades on the prowl

Switchblade

You want a touch, you want a taste
Don't even try if you let it go to waste
Don't say a word, don't name a name
Don't even try if you're afraid to take the blame

Squeeze the trigger – Can you take the risk
Pull a pin – Can you take the risk
Push a button – Can you take the risk
'Cuz they'll be watchin' – When you pull your switchblade

You wanna shake, you wanna prance

Don't even try if you're afraid to take a chance
No need to tease, no need to play
Don't even try if you let it get away

Squeeze the trigger – Can you take the risk
Pull a pin – Can you take the risk
Push a button – Can you take the risk
'Cuz they'll be watchin' – When you pull your switchblade

Do you ever feel
Like the odds are stacked against you
Do you ever feel
Like the world stands against you
Do you piss and moan
When the man puts it to you
Will you piss and moan
When the man sticks it to you
Or are you gonna stick back
Are you gonna kick back
Are you gonna fight back
Are you gonna stick back

La Media

You see me lookin' back
Three brothers on the attack
Dim light see the barrel glow
In The Middle it's the rule you know we know

Pull the plug and watch the fury RIDE
Watch 'em fall makes you warm inside

Piled high to let the glory show
It flies it dies is the rule you know we know

Simple

It's a simple thing really when it all comes right down to it
Just stand up and free your mind
You know your soul will follow

What about faith, What about hope
What about love
What about faith, What about hope
What about love

There's a sense of something better
Like a glow on the horizon
Don't give in to desperation
It's all there - embrace it

What about faith, What about hope
What about love
What about faith, What about hope
What about love

Stone

Taken from "I Am the Stone That Breaks All Hearts" by Bill Lewis

I am the stone that breaks every heart

I am the stone the builder rejected
I am the stone in the flesh of your cherry
I am the stone in the shoe of your pilgrimage

The dried pulse, the irritant
Beneath the mattress of your sleeplessness

I am the stone, scatterer of crows
I am the stone left unturned
I am the stone broken by windows
I am the stone that breaks every heart

The dried pulse, the irritant
Beneath the mattress of your sleeplessness

Fight

We have a lack of attention
And we have a need for redemption
We have a lust for consumption
We have a taste for dysfunction
We have a narrow perception
We have a desperate aggression
So there's gonna be a fight (2x)

No time to spare on reflection
And no time to act on compassion
No time to frag the invention
No time to dig for corruption
No time to cure the infection
No time for a better solution

So there's gonna be a fight (2x)

Hit Man

I don't need a reason why to shoot you in the head
I was given a hundred grand to make sure you were dead
You're runnin' with nowhere to go you hide behind a lie
Doesn't matter where you go I'll find you then you'll die

I'm a hit man (4x)

I send my big boys Johnny and Lou to save myself the time
But when they fail to call I guess they didn't do the crime
I'll have to hunt you down myself to put a bullet in your brain
And if I miss the first time I'll have to try again

I'll search for you across the globe you're worth a lot of bucks
I'll cut out your cardiac pump and feed it to the ducks
You may run and you may hide but you won't get too far
I'll gun you down, I'll cut you down I'll drop you with my car

I'm a hit man (4x)

I've found at last the place you hide and where you think you're safe
I'd like to thank you for the fun and given me the chase
Now you see your life ends here at the barrel of my gun
And in this game of cat and mouse you know that I have won

I'm a hit man (4x)

Pablo

How many hovels can you get
In one shithole town
How many low brow thugs
Can you find hangin' around
What is the price to pay
Where do I have to go
Tell me where to find some pride
'Cuz I don't fucking know

How many teenage mothers
Can you get in one shit town
How many deadbeat punks
Are out messing around
Who can I truly blame
Where do you pass the buck
I want to find a solution
But they don't give a fuck

Burn

You better watch what you think
Before you cross the line
You better say what you mean it might be the last time

And you're flying the sign
Wipe the sweat from your eyes
You hold it back one more time
Crush the thought you can't hide

You're way too sharp to be fooled
All too blind to see truth (Alabama's the truth)
You're being led by the greed
Consume another disease

And you're flying the sign
Wipe the sweat from your eyes
You hold it back one more time
Crush the thought you can't hide

Never Enough, never enough
See the future, and burn it up

Never Enough, never enough
See your dreams and burn 'em up

Never Enough, never enough
They'll take your life and burn it up

Never Enough, never enough
See the future, Burn it up

Sugar

I caught much more than a glimpse of her
She felt my eyes begin to touch her
She can feel it from across the world
And it's like a dream she likes to remember
So c'mon sugar and give it a try
We'll make the world stop spinning

It's okay if you want me, she said
It's okay if you need me, she said
It's okay if you want me, she said, it's alright
It's okay if you need me, she said, it's alright

I can feel the urge in the back of my mind
As she starts to groove a little closer
She has no reserve, she knows what it's about
And she has no inhibitions
With a hand on her hip and teeth at her neck
Just a smack and a sting to get her singin'
And it's now, it's now or never

It's okay if you want me, she said
It's okay if you need me, she said
It's okay if you want me, she said, it's alright
It's okay if you need me, she said, it's alright
